DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claims are generally narrative and indefinite, failing to conform with current U.S. practice. They appear to be a literal translation into English from a foreign document and are replete with grammatical and idiomatic errors.

Re claim 3, the term “the stroke” is indefinite as it lacks clear antecedent basis.

Re claim 6, the phrase “the extreme lower position of the needles” is indefinite as it lacks clear antecedent basis.

Re claim 13, line 3, the term “loop” is unclear. Should this term be “loom”.

Re claim 16, the recitation “or the like” is indefinite as to the metes and bounds of the claim.

Re claims 17, 19, 20, 21 are indefinite since they are product claims dependent from method claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-5, 8-12, 14, 15 and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by German patent document 2843264.

German patent document 2843264 teaches the invention as claimed including a method for producing textile items with "tricot-Raschel-crochet" linear looms for warp knitting, having at least a first bed of needles, comprising the step of manufacturing at least a textile item, characterized in that it comprises the step of moving at least said first needle bed during said step of manufacturing said textile item.

Claims 19 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by US 3681944.

US 3681944 teaches the invention as claimed including textile link-knitted items characterized in that they have at least an interrupted knitted course resulting from the temporary shift of the sinking plane (PAB-4) of the needle bed (FNA, FNP) under the extreme lower position (FC) of needles (N4) during the knitting process.

Claims 17 and 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipate by US 3693378.

US 3693378 teaches the invention as claimed including warp hosiery or knitwear seamless tubular fabric or items, for instance dresses, sweaters and stockings, tights, bodices or the like.
